

A graceful marriage of photography, design, and a uniquely feminine touch, Femina is in constant pursuit of one thing: the perfect moment. Elusive and breathtaking, that moment can be found in the gaze of a couple celebrating their engagement, or in the beaming smiles and sparkling tears of their wedding day. Its magic comes to life in the raw, untamed settings of our artful “trash the dress” sessions, or in the sultry elegance of tasteful boudoir portraits. It happens when our lenses focus on the serenity of a woman celebrating maternity, and again when she glows adoringly at her newborn baby. As baby’s pictures grow into family portraits, custom album design makes heirlooms out of memories while exceptionally designed invitations help you celebrate your most treasured moments. It’s all about the moment. We catch it. You own it.
